

Things to do

There's always something to do on Magnetic Island!

Whether you're choosing from our online 24/7 real time What's On calendar, or wanting to plan an escape, here are some extra suggestions below:

- Take The Forts walk to spot a koala, see the World War II ruins and the amazing view of the Coral Sea, Cape Cleveland, Palm Island and beyond!
- Observe the rock wallabies at Geoffrey Bay in Arcadia
- Snorkel the Nelly Bay and Geoffrey Bay self-guided Snorkel Trails (easy access), or snorkel the island's fringing reefs in Arthur or Florence Bays (more remote access)
- Scuba dive and discover the local shipwrecks including the Yongala
- Try and spot the 180 species of birds that frequent the island
- Navigate your way around the island by road, or learn more about island life with a tour
- Explore the endless walking tracks through the island's National Parks
- Cuddle a koala at Bungalow Bay Koala Village
- Enjoy the local island live music scene • Fire up the BBQ, grab the crew and enjoy a great selection of grassy foreshore vistas
- Visit the local artists and art galleries
- Drop a line off the heritage listed Picnic Bay Jetty
- Enjoy a choice of massages and indulgence packages
- Take the 4WD road and picnic at secluded West Point and try and find a geocache
- Sail around the island to discover it's 23 hidden bays and it's best anchorages to make your own
- Visit the Magnetic Museum and step into the island's colourful past
- Test your fitness level or just have fun with a great selection of water sports at Horseshoe Bay
- Hop on board and take a trip to the Great Barrier Reef to snorkel, dive or fish
- Stop at Horseshoe Bay, West Point or the end of Picnic Bay Jetty and catch a brilliant sunset
- Climb the island's spectacular rocky outcrops
