

Set the Great Barrier Reef, Magnetic Island is well known for its 320 days of sunshine and tropical lifestyle. Try out some of these handy links to get the latest on your daily weather:

AIMS Remote Weather Station
For wind direction, water and air temperatures and air pressures etc, click here.
(Based in Cleveland Bay, just south of Townsville)

Coastal Watch
This site includes surf cams, swell forecasts and lots of other handy info!
For the live cam at Alma Bay: click here
For the live cam at Horseshoe Bay: click here.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION
Be prepared for cyclones and storms by visiting the Townsville City Council Emergency Information page.

Local Daily Weather Reports
For your daily weather forecasts, click here.

Magnetic Island Rainfall
This site includes recent rainfall in the Townsville and Magnetic Island area, latest observations and river heights. Great to check if you're traveling in the wet, click here.

Mt Stuart Radar
This is a great tool to see the latest local real time weather radar mapping, to visit click here.

QUEENSLAND FORECASTS ?
& CYCLONE WARNINGS
Bureau Of Meterology (BOM QLD)
For storm warnings, coastal waters and sun safety forecasts etc, click here.

Road Conditions
(QLD Government Main Roads) ?
Planning a road trip? Before you leave home check various options via this online system for trouble spots and warnings. To make your trip a safe one, click here.

Sea Breeze
For your 7 day outlook for wind and wave forecasts, plus moon and tide forecasts, click here.

Tides - Bureau Of Meterology (BOM)
To find out more click here.

Windfinder Townsville
Whether you're windsurfing, flying a kite, or out on the water, click here.